Dear Friends,

As any child geometry whiz will tell you, the circle has long been recognized as one of the most perfect of forms. And so we are pleased to share that Miami Children's Hospital continued in top form in 2012, widening its circle of care and reputation for pediatric excellence.

From rapid growth in the hospital's expanding network of outpatient centers, to new procedures and research to serve children with complex health problems, and accolades that burnished a growing national reputation, Miami Children's Hospital had a banner year.

Highlights include:

- Once again sweeping the U.S. News & World Report rankings. The hospital was the only facility in Florida to be included in all 10 pediatric subspecialty categories recognized by the publication.
- Adding to the hospital's growing reputation, as detailed analysis of rankings revealed that Miami Children's Cancer Center had the best five-year outcomes of any pediatric program in the nation, while the Heart Program had the second-best outcomes in the U.S.
- Opening three new outpatient centers, one each in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties, making the hospital's pediatric care programs available to a widening circle of communities.
- Going live with an electronic health record and other technical innovations that earned the hospital widespread recognition within the industry.
- Offering research to improve the lives of children with cancer, complex heart conditions and more.

We hope you will take a moment to read our 2012 Report to the Community to learn about the ways Miami Children's is widening its circle of care and excellence to better serve children everywhere.

We extend sincere thanks to our physicians, nurses, care staff, donors, volunteers and all members of the Miami Children's Hospital family for their many contributions during this year of growth and success.

Sincerely,

M. Narendra Kini, MD, MHA

Dear Friends,

When a hospital expands its reach to serve children throughout the region and beyond, the arms of the widening circle are those of the physicians and caregivers who strive each day to bring new hope and healing to children and families confronting complex medical challenges.

2012 was a year in which our circle of care touched the lives of countless children and families through expanded services, innovations and the singular caring focus that defines Miami Children's.

It is with great pride that I share highlights of a milestone year in which our doctors led the way with breakthrough treatments, including:

- Orthopaedic surgery teams at Miami Children's utilized breakthrough implantable limb-lengthening technology aimed at improving the lives of children. One technique enhances the care experience for children with limb length discrepancies resulting from illness or a broken growth plate, making it possible for limb correction to occur without an exterior-mounted technology. The second new offering brightens the future for children undergoing surgery for bone cancer, eliminating the need for future surgeries to lengthen the affected limb.

- When confronted with a newborn with a complex heart condition that precluded prevailing treatments, the cardiac surgery did what it does best: innovate to save her. The new technique may become the standard of care in the future. The surgical team crafted a valve from extracellular matrix material that is growing along with this now-healthy child and may eliminate the need for future replacement valves as the child's heart grows.

- The Cancer Center at Miami Children's would not give up on a tiny girl with Stage IV osteosarcoma who could not tolerate traditional therapies. The care team enrolled the little girl in a Food and Drug Administration study of a lab-made antibody that binds to a receptor common in pediatric tumors, causing the tumor to die. Today, that little girl, against all odds, is home with her family.

It is my great privilege to work with a medical staff that continuously innovates to make a difference for children with complex conditions. I am inspired by them daily. It is an honor to lead such a fine group of clinicians, researchers and academicians whose principal mission is to bring state-of-the-art care to our children. I also extend heartfelt appreciation to the community for the trust and confidence in this fine institution that continues to widen its circle of care each year to ensure brighter futures for the children we hold dear.

Miami Children's Again Scores Perfect 10 in U.S.News Rankings

Miami Children's Hospital

Miami Children's Hospital pediatric specialty services are among the best in the nation, according to U.S.News & World Report's 2012-13 "America's Best Children's Hospitals" rankings.

Miami Children's is once again the only hospital in Florida to have programs included in all 10 pediatric subspecialty categories ranked by the publication, including:

- Cancer
- Cardiology and heart surgery
- Diabetes and endocrinology
- Gastroenterology
- Neonatology
- Nephrology
- Neurology and neurosurgery
- Orthopedics
- Pulmonology
- Urology

What's more, the U.S.News survey detail for 2012-2013 shines a light on the excellent care at Miami Children's Hospital.

- The Heart Program at Miami Children's has cardiovascular surgery outcomes that were in the top two in the nation for the year.
- The Miami Children's Cancer Center had the best five-year outcomes of any pediatric cancer program in the nation.

"Best Children's Hospitals" pulls together clinical and operational data from a lengthy survey, completed by the majority of the 177 hospitals asked to participate in the 2011-12 rankings. The survey asks hundreds of questions about survival rates, nurse staffing, subspecialist availability and many more pieces of critical information difficult or impossible for those in charge of a child's care to find on their own. The data from the survey is combined with recommendations from pediatric specialists on the hospitals they consider best for children with challenging problems.

PEDS Go Live: It's a Record

Miami Children's Hospital successfully transitioned to an electronic health record system in 2012 that offers significant enhancements for patients and caregivers alike. Internally known as PEDS (Pediatric Electronic Documentation System), this state-of-the-art program captures all data related to patient care throughout the multi-facility pediatric healthcare system, including information from radiology, the laboratory, pharmacy, inpatient care, outpatient care, rehabilitation, and urgent and emergency care – all in one comprehensive system.

In preparation for the transition, Miami Children's Hospital staff collaborated over the course of 18 months with Cerner, one of the nation's leaders in automating the healthcare industry, to ensure that the integration of PEDS was a smooth and successful one.

This new system employs innovative technology to optimize management of patient care needs. Families now only need to register once at either the main campus or any of the hospital's outpatient centers, and all data becomes part of a centralized record available on subsequent visits. Caregivers will have access to the entire panorama of data associated with a patient's care within the system.

PEDS creates a framework to enhance decision-making for clinicians, enabling access to medical data through a secure login system from any place at any time, optimizing staff ability to make informed decisions in emergent situations. What's more, the system automates the process of checks and balances related to allergies and prescriptions, and alerts caregivers when a potential prescription is at odds with existing medications.

"The transition to PEDS supports MCH's operating statement adopted in 2007 dictating that we provide world-class care in a highly automated environment," said Ed Martinez, Chief Information Officer of Miami Children's Hospital. "The PEDS system is the embodiment of that statement, offering the most current technology consistent with the MCH standard of care."

A Special Thank You
from Miami Children's Hospital Foundation

Miami Children's Hospital is here for the children of South Florida and beyond. The hospital specializes exclusively in pediatric medicine with more nationally ranked pediatric subspecialty programs than any other hospital in the region. Today, as a global leader in pediatric medicine, more and more families insist on Miami Children's when medical needs arise.

Miami Children's never rests on laurels. Each day it embraces new opportunities to advance care excellence and enhance the care environment. Because the health of our children is our ultimate priority, Miami Children's Hospital Foundation is embarking on an ambitious capital campaign over several years in an effort to drive discovery, advance knowledge and enable cures. Out of this will emerge a state-of-the-art healthcare environment that accelerates medical progress and promotes healing, profoundly impacting children and the far-reaching community the hospital serves.

These essential projects will not be possible without the philanthropic support of a generous community. Miami Children's Hospital invites you to come Together For The Children: The Campaign for Miami Children's Hospital to ensure that future generations of children and families can count on Miami Children's.

Special thanks are extended to individuals, corporations, foundations and other organizations for coming together and making a difference in the lives of children throughout 2012.

2012 Diamond Ball Raises Nearly $4 Million

Nearly 700 community, business and society notables were taken through a bold and elegant depiction of A Frosted Masquerade Affair at Miami Children's Hospital Foundation's 2012 Diamond Ball. Held at the JW Marriott Marquis Miami on Saturday, October 27, the event raised nearly $4 million, including announced gifts, to support world-class care at Miami Children's Hospital. Grammy Award winner Gloria Gaynor was inducted into the Ambassador David M. Walters International Pediatric Hall of Fame, and guests were the first to see the I Will Survive Bald, Brave, Beautiful® music video that Gaynor created with patients and supporters.

The event was chaired by foundation Board Member Marile Lopez and Jorge Luis Lopez, Esq., who have agreed to serve as 2013 Diamond Ball Chairs. Additionally, Miami Children's Hospital Foundation Board Member Ravneet Chowdhury and Anand Chowdhury served as International Chairs and announced a $1.75 million donation at the Ball.

Bald, Brave, Beautiful® Project

With the ultimate goal of raising funds to find cures and save children from cancer, Bald, Brave, Beautiful® at Miami Children's Hospital is gaining momentum through the support of celebrities like musician Armando "Pitbull" Perez, Shark Tank host Daymond John and players from the Miami Marlins.

Grammy Award-winning artist Gloria Gaynor even rewrote the lyrics to her iconic song I Will Survive and recorded a music video with some patients and supporters to highlight the Bald, Brave, Beautiful® project (view at www.youtube.com/miamichildrens).

The Bald, Brave, Beautiful project supports research and medical treatments at the Miami Children's Cancer Center, which is nationally ranked by U.S.News & World Report and boasts the highest 5-year survivability rate for pediatric cancer in the country. Miami Children's treats children from nearly every state and more than 90 countries, including a major focus in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Kids and chemo should not go together. With help from the community, Miami Children's Hospital Foundation can raise significant funding and national and international awareness in the fight against childhood cancer.

2nd Annual MCH5K Raises More Than $450,000 for the Children

Erika Carrillo helps her 2-year-old daughter and cancer survivor, Maya Carrillo, place her painted hand on a SUV at the Hyundai Hope On Wheels "Handprint Ceremony" as the crowd looks on.

Through the support of more than 3,500 runners and walkers and corporate partners, the Hyundai Hope On Wheels 2nd Annual Miami Children's Hospital 5K Presented by TotalBank (MCH5K) raised more than $450,000 for the children and families at Miami Children's Hospital, more than double the amount raised through the inaugural event. Featuring fundraising teams created in honor of patients and former patients, as well as those wishing to make a difference, the MCH5K held in September 2012 showcased the many lives that have been impacted by the hospital and celebrated the children.

The year's MCH5K Hero, 8-year-old cancer survivor, Alberto Hernandez, inspired participants to cross the finish line. Michael Baiamonte, Voice of the Miami Heat, served as Master of Ceremonies, and participants had the opportunity to hear their names called out like the pros. Title Sponsor Hyundai Hope On Wheels hosted a "Handprint Ceremony" at which several cancer survivors, including Alberto, had the opportunity to decorate a Hyundai with their painted hands.
